

therefore, has a direct and substantial interest in this proceeding and the impact it could have on its member companies and their customers. SCTC's position is that the Commission should not grant companies the authority in South Carolina to use generic trade names that can easily confuse customers and potential customers.

5. Correspondence and communications to SCTC with respect to this proceeding should be directed to the undersigned counsel.

WHEREFORE, the South Carolina Telephone Coalition respectfully requests that this honorable Commission permit its intervention in this proceeding as its interests might appear.

Respectfully submitted,
